Multimedia Mini-Worlds Exhibition

WEA / Castaway Multimedia 'mini-worlds' were exhibited in Junction's Summer Mixed Exhibition August 21 – Sept 1. The 30 intricate working models created by all students in Anna Webb's Multimedia group drew a lot of attention from the public and are still on exhibition in Estcourt Street, open with café any Friday morning except 2 November – please call in.

Castaway Youth Theatre: Jukebox Musical

Led by Natalie Walker and Tom Hill the group really did make a musical, The Choice, in a week! Everyone enjoyed the challenge that really did allow for a lot of progress for all - writing the script, finding the songs, singing whole solos, playing the music and acting scenes. It was lovely to see how far people developed in such a short time.

Family audience comments: A fab idea! Very impressive!

Music is Theatre

With funding from an ER Positive Activities Grant, Castaway youth music project took place during August led by composer James Whittle, exploring the idea that Music is Theatre. Young people spent 3 days at Estcourt Street creating a bespoke performance for the space which had audience interaction and featured 3 theatrical music pieces created and performed by the group.

Arts Award

Completing summer successes, Castaway celebrated youth members and St Anne's students gaining 9 Discover, 14 Explore and 19 Bronze Trinity Arts Awards. These give accreditation for young people's arts achievements in drama, music and film and gain them transferable credits on the national Qualification and Credit Framework. Well done everyone!

Megamix Musicals

An Autumn highlight was Castaway Music Theatre members' two night fundraising performance of songs from shows past and new. Huge thanks to everyone who made the event such a big success: to the performers who put on a fantastic show, to all the others who worked so hard to make it a great event and especially to Ellie Hodgson who thought of it all and masterminded every step of the way. A great fundraiser and a fab Castaway entertainment!

From Wizard to Toad!

After a spectacular and heart-warming Wizard of Oz last June (above), we're happy to announce that Castaway's next show will be Stiles and Drewe's THE WIND IN THE WILLOWS at Junction, June 12-15 2019. Creative team: Robert Readman (Director), Emma Dickinson (Musical Director), Natalie Walker (Music Lead and Accompanist), Tom Hill (Band) and Yasmin Roe (Stage Manager).

Goole Rotary's Dawn Walk for Castaway

Castaway volunteers joined Goole Rotarians and friends at 7am for their 5 mile Dawn Walk along the Riverbank on 4 September. The Annual Walk raises money for charities and finished with bacon butties at the Rugby Club. We thank Rotary for all their support over recent years.

Friends of Castaway

Castaway relies on our member contributions, other grant and trust funding and the fantastic support we receive from the local community, but also on financial support from individuals and businesses as Friends of Castaway. Friends are kept informed of the work that Castaway is doing throughout the year and any upcoming events. Friends of Castaway have always been important to us as 100% of the funds received go directly to supporting the members in their activities.

Thank you to everyone who's recently joined – please keep spreading the word!
